IIMC-CRC-2019-04

CALCUTTA 64: AN ENTREPRENEUR SJOURNEY TO SUCCESS

At the end of August 2019, the twilight attracted Debojit Paul (Paul) as he watched from the window of Calcutta 64, a standalone café-cum-restaurant that he owned in neighbourhood, Salt Lake. Paul reminisced how it all started. Three years back, birthday, when he was looking to have a quiet evening with her, he joint in the vicinity that offered hygienic food and a good brew of specialty coffee at a reasonable price to take her to of converting the front porch of his house into a café? The area certainly needed it. And to Paul, it seemed a brilliant idea. It had everything he was looking for a space that was quiet, when his brother joined him as a partner and so did his wife, Sheha. On the very first day the trio entertained their